

REPRISE: BY FAITH

By faith, Abraham left his father's home,
With his family and belongings to head for the unknown.
By faith, Joseph went to Egypt as a slave,
But God put him into power so his family could be saved.

Refrain:

They were ordinary people just like you and me,
Trusting God's deliverance, even when they could not see.
Through trails and tribulations victorious they came
To the Faith Hall of Fame.

By faith, Miriam made a little boat,
Then she played along the shoreline and watched her brother float.
By faith, Moses brought his people to the sea,
Then God made a path to walk across, as dry as it could be.

Refrain

By faith, David fought Goliath, nine feet tall,
With a pebble and a slingshot, he made the giant fall.
By faith, Esther with her beauty and her grace
Won the favor of the handsome king and saved the Hebrew race.

GOD WILL MAKE A WAY

Haman had an evil plot to kill all the Jews,
'Cause Esther's cousin Mordecai had flatly refused
To bend his knee to anyone but God and God alone.
Mordecai had taken Esther into his home;
He'd raised her as his daughter, as his very own,
But said to leave the king and everybody clueless
That she was a Jewess.

Refrain:

When you have a job to do,
God will give you grace to see you through;
I know that God will make a way, will make a way for you!

Esther was the cutest girl that you've ever seen,
And that is why Ahasuerus made her the queen,
But he was very busy so he left her all alone.
Esther had to risk her life to see him again,
To ask the king to save her family and friends;
Now it was time to give the king the shocking news
She was one of the Jews!

Refrain

It seems to me that it would be a very scary thing,
Approaching the king,
Knowing that her going put her fate in his hands,
Thankfully, she learned that when you're part of God's plan...

Refrain

ZACCHEUS

Zaccheus was a wee little man, and a wee little man was he.
He climbed up in the sycamore tree for the Lord he wanted to see.
And as the Savior passed that way,
He looked up in the tree...and said,
"Zaccheus, you come down! For I'm going to your house today...
For I'm going to your house today."

TO THE PROMISED LAND WE GO!

Refrain:

Moses to lead us, manna to feed us, God to protect us,
To the Promised Land we go,
Slavery behind us, freedom before us,
in the land where the milk and honey flow.

In a cloud by day, a fire by night,
God guides the way, provides us with the light.

Refrain

Though Pharoah's army chase us down,
The sea will part, and none of us will drown.

Refrain

AN ATTITUDE OF ASSURANCE

He didn't have a sword, he didn't have a spear,
He didn't have the training, he was just a volunteer.
He didn't have a coat of armor he could hide behind,
But he didn't have a doubt that he would find...

Refrain:

That an attitude of assurance in the power of the Lord
Is bigger than the enemy, stronger than the sword.
Going up against a giant doesn't make a lot of sense,
But his attitude of assurance is what made the difference.

He had a little sling, he had a little stone,
He had a little faith that he could face him all alone.
He had a little confidence and stepped up to the line,
But he didn't have a doubt that he would find...

GOD WAS IN COMPLETE CONTROL

Joseph had a pretty coat, his brothers all were jealous;
They decided they would sell him off and never tell us.

Refrain:

God was in complete control of the situation;
Though it wasn't clear to see, God's plan was set in motion.

Joseph's brothers sold him and he wound up an Egyptian,
But he soon became an influential politician.

Refrain

Joseph knew that there would soon be seven years of famine;
When he said to save the grain, they had his head examined.

Refrain

Joseph's dreams had all come true, and he was quite a hero;
Everyone was proud of him, especially the Pharaoh!

Refrain

God was in complete control of the situation;
Joseph fed his family and saved the entire nation.

BABY MOSES

Refrain:

Baby Moses hidden in the Nile,
Sister Miriam watching all the while;
God had revealed to her all she had to do;
She knew God's love would see them through.

Cheerfully obeying her father and her mother,
Miriam protected her precious baby brother.

Refrain

Carefully she guarded his basket in the water,
Till he was discovered and loved by Pharaoh's daughter.

Baby Moses grew to be a man;
Sister Miriam trusted in God's plan.
God had revealed to her all she had to do;
She knew God's love would see them through.
