

Serving At Westminster ...

Assimilation Committee: helps members become more involved in the life of the church and oversees the church website; meets monthly. Marty Warburton, 489.2888, marthawarburton@verizon.net

Building Committee: sees to it that our buildings are properly cared for.

Bus Driver: needs to be trained to drive our 15-passenger bus and have driving record checked. Paul Ransford, 489.4974, paul@wpcdurham.org

Care Team: provides meals, transportation, childcare and other essentials for members who are chronically disabled. Betty Berghaus, 489.4974, betty@wpcdurham.org

Choir: leads congregation in worship. Practices Thursdays at 7:30pm. Monica Rossman, 489.4974, monica@wpcdurham.org

Christian Education Committee: designs, supports, and encourages Christian Education at WPC. Meets on the first Tuesday of each month. Nancy Rozak, 489.4974, nancy@wpcdurham.org

Fellowship Committee: organizes special meals and social events at WPC.

Funeral Committee: provides food for receptions following Memorial Services held at WPC.

Geezers: make minor repairs, run errands, etc. in approximately 3-hour shifts once a week (when able). Barbara Fletcher, 489.4974, Barbara@wpcdurham.org

Grounds Committee: oversees proper care of church grounds.

Presbyterian Urban Ministries: provides emergency counsel and aid to people on the edge of poverty.

Presbyterian Hispanic Ministries: creating an Hispanic Presbyterian congregation in Durham. Dorene Palermo, 620.0156 dpalerm@attglobal.net

Project Graduation: provides a substance-free, all night party for 1800 high school graduates in Durham. Sam Bryan, 942.4033, sam@durhambryans.com

Shelter Meals: various WPC groups prepare and serve an evening meal for about 200 people at the Community Shelter on the 4th Tuesday of each month. Contact Bill Hatch, 490.6389

Threshold: a day-time club for people with severe mental illness.

Urban Ministries of Durham: contains the Community Shelter, the Methodist food and clothing pantry, and the Community Kitchen.

Involvement Opportunities: Session Committees	Nominating Committee
Worship Committee Acolytes, Lectors, Ushers, Nursery, Music, Sanctuary Guild Elder: Kathryn Bunch	Christian Education Teaching & enrichment for all ages, Library Elder: Holly Schmidt
Inquirer's Class for those considering joining WPC	Ways and Means
Stewardship Committee Financial, Time and Talent Pledging	Youth Committee Elder: Susan Landis

Genesis Home: a transitional home for families seeking stability and independence.

Global Missions Committee: mission work outside of Durham; meets on second Wednesday nights.

Habitat for Humanity: constructing homes for those in need. Pete Jones, 489.7992, or Jack Davis, 403.1864

Housing for New Hope: addressing the whole cycle of homelessness from prevention to transitional housing to affordable housing. Doug Wellemeier, 383.6503, dk.wellemeier@verizon.net

Interfaith Hospitality Network: providing meals, transportation, and a shelter at WPC for 1-3 homeless families who are on the edge of becoming independent; one-week visits every 3 months. Need drivers, meals, overnight hosts, set-ups and break-downs.

March 5th Group: a group of Presbyterians meeting every 1st Thursday at 7:30 am for breakfast to discuss Presbyterian matters and identify one college senior considered to be a leader to receive a one year scholarship at a Presbyterian Seminary. Sam Bryan, 942.4033, sam@durhambryans.com

Meals on Wheels: delivers nutritious mid-day meals to shut-ins; assigned routes take less than 2 hours.

Mission Trips: opportunities to provide disaster relief to the Gulf Coast victims; trips are approx. 2 weeks. Paul Ransford, 489.4974

NAMI (National Alliance for Mentally Ill) & Next Step Housing: assisting the mentally ill. Nancye Bryan, 942.4033, nancye@durhambryans.com

Hand Bell Choir: provides music for worship and other occasions; meets on Sundays at 4 pm, Kathryn Bunch, 544.3836, kathrynbun@msn.com

Kitchen Committee: equips and cares for the Fellowship Hall Kitchen as needed. Dana Lange, 490.9096, dana@onelangegroup.com

Offering Counters: counts and records Sunday offerings immediately following 11 am services; 4 or 5 times a year. Mike & Kay Rosenmarkle, 489.1148, krosenmarkle@nc.rr.com

Office Help: serve as receptionist, or help with office administrative opportunities. Serve as needed. Gail Reynolds, 489.4974, gail@wpcdurham.org

Lectors: serve as reader during worship. Contact Blair Chesnut, 684.0656, bchesnut@chg.mc.duke.edu

Library Committee: organizes and promotes the church library. Ann Kline, 493.3988, annkline@mindspring.com

Memorial Garden Committee: cares for the Memorial Garden. Becky Walker, 929.0428

Nursery: cares for our children during worship and other special occasions. Anne Vann, 493.0001, thevanns@nc.rr.com

Recorded Books Library: organizes and cares for library of recorded books. Stacy Hagerty, 493.4314, shagerty@townofchapelhill.org

Sanctuary guild: sees Sanctuary is cared for, flowers are provided and appropriate liturgical colors are in place. June Jones, 929.0360, junejones@nc.rr.com

Sound Technician: operates PA system in sanctuary for worship services & special events; 8-10 services a year. Contact Derek Leadbetter, 490.0754

Stephen Ministry: provide confidential care to members in need. This is a two-year commitment which includes 50 hours of training. Betty Berghaus, 489.4974, betty@wpcdurham.org

Sunday School Teacher: teaching in teams of volunteers at any age level. Most teachers teach at least 13 Sundays a year. Nancy Rozak, 489.4974, nancy@wpcdurham.org

Supper Club: fellowship with groups of 10-25 people who meet monthly for a meal. Contact Marty Warburton, 489.2888

Technology Committee: cares for telephone system and computers. Sam Bryan, 942.4033, sam@durhambryans.com

Usher: serve in teams 4 services a year; select preference of early or late service.

Vacation Church School: participate in a week of incredible Christian Education for 4-year-olds through 5th graders at New Hope Camp every June. Nancy Rozak, 489.4974, nancy@wpcdurham.org

Wedding Committee: assists pastors in directing weddings held at WPC. Contact Claudia Draffin, 493.5739

Worship Committee: directs all matters having to do with worship, including ushers, lectors, choirs, sanctuary guild, nursery, weddings, funerals. Contact Kathryn Bunch, 544.3636

Youth Work: works with Youth Pastor to provide appropriate activities for youth.

Questions or want help getting connected? Contact the Assimilation Committee, Marty Warburton 489.2888

Serving Beyond Westminster...

Boy Scouts: includes Cubs, Venture Crew and Boy Scouts. Chip Reinhardt rmlaw@nc.rr.com 489-6858

Calling Chords: a women's singing group performing for nursing homes; practices on Monday nights. Kathryn Bunch, 544.3836, kathrynbus@msn.com

New Hope Camp: meeting and event facilities between Chapel Hill and Hillsborough.

Campus Ministries: supports Presbyterian Campus Ministries at Duke, UNC. and NCCU.

Community Mission Day: half-day workdays two Saturdays a year to conduct manual labor for some of the Durham ministries which WPC supports.

CROP Walk: a seven-mile walk to support hunger related causes, usually late March.

Disaster Relief: teams work to repair properties damaged by natural disasters, most frequently Princeville/Tarboro, Hyde County, and Gulf Coast. Paul Ransford, 489.4974, paul@wpcdurham.org

Durham Congregations in Action: an interfaith group of over 50 congregations seeking to do together what no single congregation could accomplish.

Durham Crisis Response Center: provides shelter and safety for abused women and children.

Durham Nativity School: a non-profit school for disadvantaged 6-8th grade boys. Sally Keener, 401.0799, sallyk@nc.rr.com

Food Bank: facility providing food for over 100 agencies in the Durham area. Dana Lange, 490.9096, dana@onelangegroup.com