Do Justice · Love Kindness · Walk Humbly

2020 Spring Women's Retreat

Friday, March 20 - Sunday, March 22

Southern Charm House, West Holden Beach, NC

with M-J Junkin, Speaker & Christian Educator

Program

Some say hospitality is a special gift that some people have and others don't. But God's love for us is the greatest example of genuine hospitality. During our retreat together we will spend time listening for God's hospitality extended to us. You are warmly invited to experience hospitality to God, from God, to ourselves and to each other.

Costs

Program $80 per person

Includes program, speaker, and meals (3 on Saturday, 1 on Sunday)

Lodging* Single room - $331 per person (1 king bed)

Room with 2 people: $166 per person (2 queens or 1 king bed)

Room with 3 people: $110 per person (bunk beds)

\ Covers two nights' lodging; Lower cost options available upon request*

Retreat participants will contribute snacks or salads. Carpooling is encouraged. See the back of this flyer for the registration form and additional details.

About M-J Junkin

Margaret-Jean Junkin (M-J) is a graduate of HeartPaths DFW spiritual direction program in Dallas, Texas, and holds a master's in Christian education. She has worked in churches of all sizes, directed camps, and served as Presbytery educator. An ordained elder, M-J currently works as a certified spiritual director, leads chapel for Faithbridge Presbyterian Preschool, and plays keys for the praise team at her home church in Frisco, Texas. She is wife to David and mom to two young men. M-J has a passion for listening to faith stories, noticing our encounters with God, and being an advocate as we journey through this thing we call "life."
